Flying Change

Synopsis

"I have to be more than a passenger this time, I have to be a rider."Fourteen-year-old Molly O'Connor thinks big. She wants to become an Olympic equestrian. Despite her father's disapproval, she lands a job at Reintree Stables. It doesn't hurt that the owner's son is her age. Her work pays for riding lessons, but just when she sees her objective on the way to fruition two incidents occur that frighten her. Now she sees herself as a coward. Even the horse she loves can't help her. The big riding career seems over before it began. Little does she know another test of her courage is coming, one where life hangs in the balance.
