Customer Reviews

Good stuff... the hooplah about clothing...for women...not so accurate.. moderate shorts and racerback tank with flip flops and a huge water bottle , 12 hour insect repellent..good to go.

It was good will help. me understand the people more while I travel there

Outstanding little bit to educate myself on Guatemala before heading out for a business/school trip. It provides a great deal of information on cultural norms, the history of the country, and relevant information to help you travel the country without offending natives in the process! Big fan of it and will order them for other countries as well.

This is helpful for a first time traveler to Guatemala...readable and interesting.

I changed from reading guide books to reading about customs and etiquette. It's a wonderful way to prepare for visiting a country.

This is a great little guide with lots of good history and information needed to visit Guatemala.

Nice book and will definitely use it when I travel there next year.

This is definitely a niche book. It is not a travel guide book or a good story. But if you are looking for a description of what people are like in gross generalities and what you are likely to face in business situations, I think it is an excellent resource. I am planning a mission trip to Guatemala in the summer and it met my needs exactly. (of course I am hoping it is actually accurate -- we shall find out after I return).
