Colt's spent the past four years running from his family's betrayal and the daughter they kept secret from him. His dream of a pro football career has come to pass but nothing he does fills the emptiness inside of him. Until an accident during a blinding snowstorm requires him to be rescued by a surprising woman. Sophie's only trying to get to her family's cabin when the snowstorm knocks her off course and directly in the path of the sexiest man she's ever seen. Customer Reviews

A story wrote about love and forgiveness while coming full circle. Colt Anderson's choice of drug was football. He knew he'd make it the pros and have a family with Hannah. Only problem is Hannah had their baby but was with his brother. It's been 4 years since he has seen or talked to his family. How do you forgive them for keeping a life changing secret? Sophie is her name. That's the breath of fresh hair that causes him to crash and see his world could be better, she makes him better. An unlikely friendship turns into more. Together Colt & Sophie along with the family must battle distance and scandals. Absolutely great read! Couldn't put it down or get enough of it! Love the Anderson brothers!!!!

This was a beautiful story of forgiveness and love. Beautifully written. I can't wait to read how Livie's story next

Well scripted and well written, although the closure of total family betrayal in the context of a second relationship boggles the mind. Real people. Real emotions. Well done.

I love that Hannah got redemption for all the trouble that her parents caused her. I also love that both Hannah and Colt found their happy endings.

Finding Ford lead readers to wonder what became of Ford's estranged brother, Colt. Wonder no more. This novel depicts not only where Colt went after learning he was betrayed but shows us that no matter how impossible it may seem, forgiveness can always be found. Even if this revelation comes from an unbidden source.
