Melody Beattie is the author of numerous books about personal growth and relationships, drawing on the wisdom of Twelve Step healing, Christianity, and Eastern religions. With the publication of Codependent No More in 1986, Melody became a major voice in self-help literature and endeared herself to millions of readers striving for healthier relationships. She lives in Malibu, California.

Not the fault of the author, but my fault as I wanted to work this book for a co dependency that was not based on alcohol so it was less helpful for me than I thought.

I purchased this as a companion to her book, "Codependent No More." It was definitely a book from GOD! It is helping me so much and I've had it less than a week. Anyone with addicts in their family or close circle of friends owes it to themselves to read this and her other book as well. It will answer questions you didn't realize you had. VERY HELPFUL AND HEALING!!! I thank God for leading me to purchase it.

After I fell apart after a relationship, I found out I was codependent. This book really helps to explain the whys of the illness. There was a lot there that really sounded like they were talking about me in my situation. Great stuff.

I haven't completed working the book yet, but it promises a lot. Good exercises. Quite insightful.

I am working thru this workbook with my Al-Anon sponsor currently. We are really getting some insight!

Very satisfied. Met product description. Also, it arrived timely.

As advertised. Thank you

Really helps individuals look deep within themselves and understand how their codependency hurts themselves and others.
