Pioneers in dictionary publishing since 1819 --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

This new Scrabble dictionary has one immediately recognizable flaw: there are no definitions included. Another, less easily recognized flaw is that the dictionary contains words that may be used in Great Britain, but that are not found in America. For example, the word "spain" and "spained" are not found in any American dictionaries, nor could I find it on the web. The word "da" is an English version of "pa", but it is not found in American dictionaries. The same goes for "spail". There could be many other examples.

Very pleased with this. Would like to have definitions but if it did I wouldn't be able to list it!! So many words I didn't know were out there!!

Great condition!!!

Really helps us to be better scrabble players. Many many new words to learn and use. Paul Daniels, Mt. View, AR very pleased with item!

Great book!

I wasn't aware it was a hard cover book. It is too heavy and bulky to use while playing scrabble. Also, I tried to cancel this order as soon as I saw how much the postage was but couldn't do so. The postage cost more than twice the price of the book. Won't be dealing with again because the order was processed FAR TOO QUICKLY.

Words are impacting and powerful, and Scrabble not only creates the opportunity to learn more words, but the chance to smash your opponents with your scoring power. This book brings you up-to-date with words that have been added and those that are no longer allowed.
