Health Care Politics And Policy In America

Synopsis

Fully updated for this new edition, "Health Care Politics and Policy in America" combines background and context for the evolution of U.S. health care policy with analysis of recent trends and current issues. The book introduces public policy students to the complex array of healthcare issues, and healthcare professionals to the study of public policy. It provides comprehensive coverage of policy issues related to healthcare at the federal state, and provider/patient levels, from Medicare and Medicaid funding and managed care to medical liability law and ongoing debates over the beginning of life and end-of-life decisions. "Health Care Politics and Policy in America" successfully integrates political, ethical, economic, legal, technological, and medical factors in an issue-focused survey of U.S. healthcare policy; and includes a chronology of healthcare-policy-related events and legislation from 1798 through 2005 and an appendix comparing medical malpractice tort laws state-by-state.

Customer Reviews

This book was very heavily marked and had a broken spine. Not the greatest condition, but it was listed as used. I've been fortunate in the past to receive "used" books that were very nearly new condition. This was not, but the listing just said used. I got what was expected, just not what was hoped for this time.

Very new and very fast delivery

Working on a master of health administration, this book has been quite helpful, I carry it and the newest version literally everywhere.

Pretty well written book - I had to buy it for one of my graduate courses for Public Health. Gives you a good understanding of the interplay of politics in health care, and after you finish reading it you will be amazed at what you learned. Highly recommend.

This book is very concise and well written. It provides excellent information and analysis of all of the hot topics in healthcare today. A MUST read for all young healthcare administrators and a wonderful read for all of us living the healthcare fight!
