New Brunswick (Colourguide Travel Series)

Synopsis

From natural wonders like Saint John's Reversing Falls and the Hopewell Rocks to must-see historic sites, museums, and rousing summertime festivals, this guidebook explores the best that Canada's New Brunswick has to offer. The guide follows the province's four principal scenic routes. It covers all the key attractions and events of special interest to visitors. Discover the range of New Brunswick's attractions and heritage. Find out about the history and traditions of the Micmac and Maliseet peoples, the Loyalists, the Acadians, and other groups. Enjoy feature chapters on outdoor adventure opportunities, local delicacies you'll want to taste, and fine 19th century church architecture. The convenient listings section offers reliable recommendations on the best in dining, shopping and lodgings.

Customer Reviews

"...full of enticing color pictures that make these destinations difficult to resist... chock-full of meaty facts that range from the historical to where to bike, eat and shop, the images definitely help travelers decide what to visit." (Jill Rigby Toronto Sun)"... even if you know New Brunswick well, you'll likely find some surprises in these 200 pages." (Elizabeth Cran Charlottetown Guardian)"Wonderfully practical and visually rewarding." (Richard Wilbur Canadian Book Review Annual)...the strength of these guides lies in the colour photography and heavily detailed copy in the Top Attractions, Neighbourhoods, and History sections. (Tralee Pearce Globe and Mail)"Ms. Eiselt's literate writing style and her insightful comments coupled with more than 200 beautiful color photographs, make New Brunswick - A Color Guidebook, more than just a reference book for those who are planning a trip around the picture province. It's the kind of book you can send to relatives in Ontario or Manitoba for Christmas. Although small enough to fit into a backpack or roomy handbag, it is large enough to sit on the coffee table without getting lost among the newspapers and magazines." (Anne Ingram Fredericton Daily Gleaner)"The New Brunswick book goes beyond listings and information provided in the official provincial government guidebook. It has opinionated and colorful accounts of the history and culture of New Brunswick..." (Alan Cochrane Times-Transcript)"Readers of these outstanding guides will gain a true appreciation for the distinct culture, geography, and history of each province, and of the travel opportunities awaiting them." (Christine Hughes Canadian Book Review Annual)
