The CITIX60 series provides guides to some of the world's most renowned design hubs - cities that lead the world in culture and design. Curated by a select group of local artists, designers, chefs, architects, musicians, photographers, and filmmakers, this is an insider's view of what makes a trip to his or her city memorable. With up-to-date recommendations on the accommodations, eateries and shops that give a city its distinctive flair, and a handy section on travel tips that gives basic information on getting around, as well as usual tours and recurring festivals to consider. Detailed maps and QR codes provide ease of travel, and a blank pages section at the back with lined and gridded pages allows for note-taking and sketching.

Just traveled to Barcelona and a lot of the places I would recommend are in this book!

I love these books! They make a great coffee table piece and are actually quite helpful.

I've loved this series before, using both the Tokyo and Paris editions, but the Barcelona edition is already out of date. Many of the sites listed have closed permanently. Despite being published in 2014, it desperately needs an update. If you're using it to plan your trip, be sure google the locations first to see if they're open and for accurate hours. Many shops also take a siesta, and will likely be closed between 2 and 5 PM. Plan accordingly and have fun in this beautiful and vibrant city!
