For lovers of road nostalgia, diners, quirky and historic attractions, this book is for you. This edition concentrates on the state of Delaware, and presents a well organized collection of places to visit on the road. Each place or attraction is well described with interior and exterior photos, and provides an area for adding your own notes. QR codes for scanning are provided for additional on line information. This is the road trippers' version of an AAA guidebook for interesting places to stop and visit. Don't leave home without it.
