In a clear, crisp style, these abbreviated essays present the vital doctrines forming the foundations of Southern Baptist life and thought. Some present a major concept while others consider, one at a time, the several aspects of a basic belief.

I have been looking for a book to help new Baptists and non-Baptist better understand Baptist convictions. While not all Southern Baptists are identical I think this book does a great job in what it sets out to do.

This is a clear and concise review of what we as Baptist Christians believe (Southern Baptist). It is easy to read and very helpful in my putting together a 4 week study for our Sunday School for Adults. It helps to know what it is we believe to be sure that we are actually going to a Church that believes as we do. I found this to be well worth the time and the cost.

This is a true classic from 1964 and is one of the best that deals with the subject. It is heavily laced with Scripture references to enable the reader to look up relevant Bible verses that support the doctrinal positions.

Doctrine clarified.

Excellent read!
