Ming-Ju Sun has worked in fashion advertising as an illustrator, art director, and photographer. Her original illustrations for Garfinckel's department store, along with her original drawings from Dover's Fashions of the First Ladies Coloring Book, are archived at the Smithsonian's National Museum of American History.

I love this coloring book, every illustration in this book is stunning, with intricate details, of elegantly dressed women, gracefully posed, in the broad shouldered narrow waisted, ornately embroidered gowns of the time, from the 1890s through the early 1900s. But there is even more, to enhance each illustration you will find flowers, vines, birds, cats, dogs, deer, and even fairies. I often think of this time in history as I color in this book. At that time women had very few options for owning a business and/or working outside the home. Dress shops were one of these and each seamstress spent hours embroidering the gowns so theirs would stand out from other dress shops.¹ 31 exquisitely drawn illustrations, printed one per page (the back is blank), on heavy weight, bright white paper.² Gel pens, Markers or Colored pencils work well with this book; I use a combination of both.³ 2 full paged colored illustrations are added to inspire you, I am adding them below along with some others from the book in hopes it will help you decide if this book is just right for you.

Good quality, not lame as some are. Pages are only printed on one side so ink would bleed through and ruin a picture on the back page. One thing I hadn't noticed when I previewed it through LOOK INSIDE is that there are lot of birds and dogs in the pages. If you are not good at colouring those, or don't like colouring them, this is a definite drawback. I may scan the dog pages and erase them in the photo editing program.

These are beautiful drawings and I love the many color combination possibilities Beautiful Coloring Book. This is from Creative Haven which is a top notch company with it comes to Coloring books. You can't go wrong when you buy Creative Haven. Pages are one sided, perforated for easy removal. I am going to have a good time coloring the pictures in this book.

I enjoy this series of coloring books because the pictures have larger components instead of the little tiny details that most of the books have. The person who designed these has a good eye for features and fashions, and I was happy to find the whole series of them.

Good variety. Pretty clothing. Fun to have if you like detail in your coloring. One thing I don't like is that the artist uses too many designs/patterns on the clothing.

Love love love one of my fav adult coloring books and I have many many many. I use Derwent Inkense Pencils, Fiskars Gel Pen, Yasutomo Gel Xtreme Metallic Pens, Chalk pencils, watercolor pencils,

One of my favorites!! Detailed and takes fine lined markers or gel pens for some tiny areas. Am enjoying this book!
