Moleskine City Notebook Firenze (Florence)

Synopsis

The first guidebook you write yourself. The city of Florence takes its name from the word for "flourishing". Many centuries after its founding, the city continues to be a destination for art and culture. Collect your impressions in the Moleskine City Notebook Florence. The Key Map summarizes the overall city layout, showing the sequence and location of the 12 zone maps. Map of the bus system and list of stations, plus the alphabetical street index of the zone maps. Blank pages for jotting down notes and recording your thoughts, stories and memories. 32 removable sheets for loose notes and exchanging messages. 12 translucent sticky sheets for tracing your routes and sharing itineraries. A 96-page tabbed archive for collecting everything that matters most and keeping it at your fingertips. The first 6 tabs are printed; the others await your personalization with the enclosed adhesive labels. Each pocket sized Moleskine City Notebook is thread bound and has a cardboard bound cover with rounded corners, acid free paper, three bookmarks, an elastic closure and an expandable inner pocket that contains the Moleskine history.

Moleskine City Notebook Firenze (Florence) (Moleskine City Notebook) Moleskine City Notebook: Romal really liked the design of these notebooks but found that as small as the Rome and Florence books were I needed something smaller. So, after agonizing for a minute, I tore them both to pieces.

They came apart nicely if I paid attention to cutting the bound bundles of pages. I inserted the Florence map behind the Rome map discarded some of the tabed pages and saved the plain note book pages to make the one notebook I will carry to both cities. So far the glue is holding.

The trip is coming up and I have learned about finding my way around. I'm looking forward to being well-versed by the time we arrive.
