Customer Reviews

Picture Window Books is a publisher of children's books and digital products.

This story doesn't flow well for younger readers. I love the message, but the book is much suited for a child who is in 4th or 5th grade. Unfortunately the students in those grades are reading chapter books by then. Great message, if you have a very advanced 2nd or 3rd grader.

I love this book. The character was great because he looked like my son. There needs to be more books with children of color.

My little 4yo loved it. Of course, we had a disagreement about whether my son's new name is "marvelous me" or "marvelous you", but nevertheless, we both enjoyed the book. This books offers great talking points for discussing self-esteem and identity issues. I recommend it.

Great story, vibrant colors, comes with activities on last few pages. Only critique: wish it was hard cover or used sturdier paper.

illustrations are great and loved the story.

My kids absolutely loved this story!

Perfect book. I like that your child can create a story of his own at the end of the book. Super cool!

Great read for my 7 year old
