Piano Concerto No. 5 In E-flat Major: Op. 73 ("Emperor") (Dover Miniature Music Scores)

Synopsis

Nicknamed the "Emperor" for its nobility and grandeur, Beethoven's Piano Concerto No. 5 in E-flat major, Op. 73, was the composer's last piano concerto. Written in 1809, when Beethoven was 39, it ranks among the most popular concertos in the repertoire. Grove's Dictionary of Music and Musicians considers it one of the strongest works conceived by Beethoven, and by far the most "symphonic" of his concertos, from the "thunderous cadential celebration" of the very first bars to the brilliant rondo-finale. Reproduced here from an authoritative early edition, the score appears with bar-numbered movements. Ideal for study in the classroom, at home, or in the concert hall, this affordable, high-quality, conveniently sized volume will be the edition of choice for music students and music lovers alike.

Customer Reviews

The triumphant genius of Ludwig van Beethoven (1770-1827) casts a long shadow over classical music; no other composer of the past two centuries has exercised an influence more profound than his. A product of the classicist generation, he was the first of the Romantics, and his exhilarating works remain undiminished in their powers of enchantment.

as a pianist i was so pleased to find this piece of music in print and so economically priced, however i should have paid closer attention to the description. the product description states this is a

'miniature score' and boy are they not kidding! the book itself is about the size of a 5x7 photograph, and this size contains the entire score...which makes the print teeny tiny.don't get me wrong, i'm glad i have this score, however to play the piano part, i will definitely need to highlight the little lines in the middle of the pages where the piano parts are printed.a mixed bag, but i would purchase this again.
