I am a community orchestra level violist and this book caught my eye. The idea here was (for me) to get some music to play somewhat spontaneously in a small group venue; e.g., friends and/or family.

The song selection covers the most familiar Christmas music and the keys are nice and fundamental - C, D or G. One thing to be aware of: when the book says it is arranged for "two equal" instruments (the same with the whole duet series by the arrangers) it means the melody is exchanged back and forth between the two. It is not a melody/harmony arrangement. Bottom line is I am very happy to own this and other duet books and I grade them as A+.
