Customer Reviews

It's a real very nice example of life from a person who trusts in God and let Him guide her life, I think this book helps us to walk with God and trust Him always, it enhances our lives.

Very informative writing of an extraordinary author of Christian novels.

Simple, written with love, interesting, good pictures. It is amazing her life and dedication. READ IT!!!

Very slow moving Too many anecdotes that remind me of the rambling remembrances of an old grandparent. I politely sat through almost one half of the book, then just scanned the rest. I still love her fiction and will continue to be a fan.

I was thoroughly inspired by reading this book. It seemed to me to be a little slow developing at the beginning, due to a fairly complex family history. Even this should be interesting to people who like history from the perspective of people who lived it. It is well organized, and provides a good description of the environment that nurtured this God-inspired writer. Janette Oke's life experiences are so easy to identify with, and her dependence on God so well portrayed that it is an inspiration to me. It is also fascinating to learn how one of my favorite writers arrived at her mission in life.

The story of Janette Oke's life told through snatches of stories. This book is packed with little stories and references to events in Janette's life. It reads almost as a family history or a remembrance book. Illustrated with a few pictures in the middle, it gives a good overview. The book is simply told, as most of her fictional books are. I only wish there had been more information about her as a writer.

Love the trust in God throughout the lives good & bad times of the lives of the family and their choice to follow His guidance wherever it may take them.
