At last, a honey cookbook that uses honey for the recipes! This is well worth the money! I made the cake recipe and discovered a cake made with honey doesn't dry out like one made with sugar! This cookbook doesn't limit you just to these recipes, but tells you how to convert all recipes from sugar to honey! It's wonderful and I highly recommend it!

If you're interested in using honey instead of sugar in cooking and baking than this is a nice lightweight intro. However it's definitely not a comprehensive guide. The recipes use commonplace ingredients, instead of hard to come by ingredients, which is refreshing. Definitely worth reading if you're making the switch from sugar to honey.

Nice short booklet that has great information in it for substituting honey in recipes. Also had good tips for baking with it as well, I wish there would be more recipes in it though

This little guide is written in a friendly way. I felt as though I was talking with a friend. Short guide to keeping bees as well as simple recipes. I'm glad I bought it.

Lots of honey info and tons of yummy honey recipes packed tight into a little pamphlet. "Sweet" :) The back cover shows a few handfuls of other pamphlets like this one that I also found very helpful: "Cooking with Edible Flowers" "Favorite Pickles & Relishes" "Cooking with Oats" "Jams, Jellies & More" "Easy Game Cookery" "Growing & Using Oregano" "Growing & Using Rosemary" "Great Rhubarb Recipes" "Tea and Teatime Recipes" "Making & Using Flavored Vinegars" "Making Cheese, Butter & Yogurt" "Sensational Soy" At the price, you can collect them all!...or at least a couple ;) without breaking the bank!

Interesting and useful book. She describes what honey is and what it can be used for in cooking. There are cooking tips, as well as suggestions for its use in beverages. Honey can be used in Breakfast foods, and breads. Dressings, marinades and sauces as well as side dishes and deserts and sweets can be made with honey. Recommend this book to anyone interested in cooking with honey.

COMPLETELY SATISFYING transaction. TOP QUALITY product and SPEEDY DELIVERY one day earlier than anticipated. AAA+++, Thanks
