PANA BARBOUNIS founded Pana Chocolate in Melbourne. He developed his products over six months, including training in the UK and visits to Belgium, where he worked with traditional chocolatiers. His chocolate is now sold by 3,000 stockists in 19 countries around the world.

haven't tried any recipes but, the book is beautiful love the photos!!!

Lots of great ideas here, but they don't tell you anything about how to temper raw chocolate, or even give you a basic recipe for raw chocolate. They just give you recipes that require the purchase of their own raw chocolate bars as part of the ingredients. Also, other recipes are missing as well. Coconut Cream for instance. Not listed anywhere in the book from what I can tell, but used in all sorts of fillings and ganaches. The book is lovely, and the deserts are stunning, but if you're wanting to learn the craft of raw chocolate this is not the book.
