Customer Reviews

I bought this for my grandchildren, ages 12 and 13, and they love Uncle Johns Bathroom Readers. I do actually keep this one in the bathroom for them when they come. A lot of the time we read them in bed and they read them to me in the car. Actually I bought 3 or 4 of them at the same time for Christmas last year and they had to immediately start reading them. They are well worth the money.

We are fans of the Uncle John's Bathroom Readers and thought our 8 year old grandson would enjoy the kid's version. He loves it and will read it on road trips and during his summer break from school, when it is normally difficult to get him to read. The book was in good condition and again, the ordering, purchasing, and delivery processes were flawless.

I bought an Uncle Johns reader years ago at a remaindered book store. A few years later my Father sent me another for a gift and to our surprise our 10 year old couldn't put them down. My wife bought him Kidtopia from a local store and with his birthday coming up I went online and found there were quite a few geared towards kids. He just opened this one today and has only just started but I can tell he loves it as he continually stops reading to ask us, "Did you know?"

Bought this for my grandson and he really liked it! And you always need something in the bathroom to amuse yourself!

This book is REALLY great! I recommend it for anyone who likes to read more of a non-fiction type of book. There are tons of cool facts about: animals, people, the world, food, fun facts, and way more! You should get it!

My whole family loves this book. Great reading, but it can make someone hog the bathroom! We love the great facts and info. in this book. Great for all ages! Very entertaining!

This is on the quick-read shelf for my 5th and 6th grade students. I read it first, and it is fine.

I love these!
