Customer Reviews

I'm new to the concept of making my own makeup at home, and wanted a somewhat simple read to get me started in the right direction. This Kindle book is actually pretty good, and the price is affordable. The book offers recipes and gives the synopsis of how to prepare the product. The book doesn't give you pictures or step by step instructions. It's mainly an overview of what you need, how to mix it together and your done. Personally, I can get by with lite instructions without pictures, but if you're looking for a comprehensive guide, this isn't it. I also like that ingredients were easy to find. Overall, the book is okay.

I wasn't impressed so sent it back. It came in damaged anyway. If it had been useful, I would have asked for a replacement, but instead asked for a refund. I was so excited to order it, based on its description, but very disappointed in the reality. I hope others enjoy it, obviously some people will. I wish the author well. It's just that this book wasn't for me.

Cinnamon and ginger are irritants! Don't put them on your skin!! And food cannot be used as a colorant in lipstick! The color will suck!

As a licensed Cosmetologist I am familiar with the ingredients in store bought cosmetics. Her information is spot on. I switched to all mineral makeup years ago for that reason. I found her recipes very interesting and completely healthy, can't wait to try some of them.

I really like this Homemade Makeup book. In this book I learned exactly why I need to stop buying toxic, store-bought cosmetics which are full of mystifying chemicals, and I realized I should start making my own organic, homemade options. This book also have great 28 amazing natural homemade makeup recipes each of which evidently lists the ingredients required and is brilliantly laid out with simple step by step directions, it made it easy for me to follow along. I highly recommend this book to any women out there.

This is a great topic!With all the info about natural products, its great that someone has written a book on this subject!! know alot of women that would like to use homemade natural products in term of cosmetics and this book offers alot of healthy options.There are women in my life who I will be recommending this book to.I liked the way the chapters were broken down into easy to ready sections.Its clear that the writer has a passion for natural products and has put on her investigative hat on this subject and come up with some great ideas.Lots of well researched info here so I am happy to recommend this book.

I've always wanted to make my own makeup. The recipes in this book are simple and easy. I haven't tried any of the stuff yet but the ingredients are all good so I'm sure they will make my skin feel so much better. Also the book goes into why making your own makeup is important. It also lists the many ingredients in commercial makeup that are bad for you and why they are bad for you as well. I really liked this book and will continue to keep it to make my own makeup.

This book is amazing my kids and I have made many of the items in here with amazing results and they really love spending time with mommy amd doing this together !
