Me And Jesus: God Spoke To Me

Synopsis

Water, not blood, flows through their veins. This is the story of the strong bond between Mother and Daughter and is based upon the life experiences of the author. The death of the Family Matriarch opens many wounds, some to be discovered only after her demise, and pits love and devotion against greed and envy, with a denouement that confirms what the true meaning of love and friendship really is. In a time of sickness and tragedy, family should stick together, but in this particular instance, this family divided, as if they had water in their veins instead of blood. Why? Because of Greed.

Customer Reviews

Mary I have to say that the book had me laughing, crying and it made me mad, I remember you telling me about your family and about your red dress:) . Your a wonderful writer and story teller, I know I've said this before ,you write excatetly like you talk, I enjoyed this book very much and I'm looking forward your next

This precious book along with the personal life lessons experienced by this author. Came to me precisely at the right moment. Because it helped me come to terms with personal family issues it needed to forgive. Much appreciation to the courageous author for sharing how God Spoke to her.My Best Wishes to the author.
