good. helpful. feel very good . for my family , Weight of the product fees good in my hand and it's very nice looking. If your looking for value in a product this is it.

This book represents a scholarly analysis of music forms that are familiar to many Americans, yet whose origins are not always known. Mr. Loza obviously knows the material on a first-name basis and sets it out in painstaking clarity. Also included are interviews with notable purveyors of popular Latin music (Los Lobos, Poncho Sanchez, Lalo Guerrero, et al). For anyone with more than a passing interest in the richness of Mexican-American music and for lovers of its contemporary forms, this book provides a rich bed of information.
