Andrew's Kernel Of Truth

Synopsis

Andrew wants to be a hero. He longs to do big and wonderful things with his life. All is well until a nasty weed tries to sabotage his happiness and steal his joy. Full of doubt, Andrew makes some selfish choices that leave him feeling empty inside. Will Andrew understand his life's true purpose before it's too late? Can the farmer help him make the right choice so he can be the hero he was meant to be?

Customer Reviews

Beautiful rendition of scripture verses (John 12:23-25) not often taught at a child's level. The author really brought this parable to life. My 11 year old son especially enjoyed this book and the illustrations. As an adult, I loved it too.

What a great story based on one of Jesus' parables. These kinds of books are great for kid's at bedtime. I hope this is just the first of many more in a series.
