I love these books! I am a 3rd grade teacher. I was trying to find some biography books for my students and I stumbled across these on . I bought nine different books and I'm so glad that I did! Most of these books are on a late 3rd to 4th grade reading level, which makes them perfect for my advanced readers. I teach in a diverse school, and some of my students are very interested in learning about African American people in history. So I got several books about African Americans to interest those students. It was great to see the light in their eyes while reading these books! I love finding books that make my students love reading. I'll definitely be buying more of these in the near future!

We were covering American history this year (homeschooling family) and I was apprehensive about the subject of the Holocaust as our eldest was only 6.5 but this book was a perfect introduction. It is honest and we'll written without being overly graphic or inappropriate for younger readers. We used it as a read aloud so that we could address any questions or concerns and we will use it again with our other children as they get older

My 9yr old daughter chose this as her summer reading and loved it. I was worried about introducing this awful time in history and had her read the book aloud so we could discuss it as she read. It was carefully written with young readers in mind. It takes you through her life story in a very sensitive manner. It allows the reader to understand the hardships she went through, without being too graphic.

Ordered this paperback book for my wife for her 5th grade class. The book is great and she loves this series for her classroom. Got it while it was on sale and it's a great addition for her classroom. She highly recommends this series.

Yes! Very good and yes it leave's gaps. However those gaps open doors to a child's mind to ask more and research more. Honestly perfect !

Great book. It was extremely sad, but a good way to introduce the Nazis to younger children. It's very interesting, and I love it.

My 7-yr-old nephew love these books! I get him a few every month and he devours them within hours~

My kids love these books. Very educational and easy to read read.
