Customer Reviews

Purchased this to help my daughter with her lower school spelling bee. The calendar is made up of words in a random order that can go from advanced to really simple on any given day. While this may help as an added word list, I definitely would not recommend this as a primary source or preparation.

Just what I wanted to keep the spelling bee fever alive all year! thanks!

This calendar is a JOKE. Includes daily words like "lesson," "comma," "penny" and "eggplant." The occasional word worthy of a Scripps Spelling Bee word list can be found on basic free lists, or lists of former winning words. Minimal to no challenge for kids who aspire to compete in their elementary or middle school bees, much less adults. My 9 year old could spell most words included in this 2017 calendar. The format is also very disappointing. Assumes one daily user (our whole family has enjoyed this calendar in years past), and everything is in small, light colored font - hard to read, or highlight words for study or entertainment. Scripps should be ashamed of endorsing this product.
