The Chassidishe Parsha Torah Or-Likkutei Torah

Synopsis

English literature available on Chassidus has increased tenfold throughout the years, having us witness a real breakthrough in this regard. Hundreds of classical Chassidic texts have been translated and annotated by renowned writers and publishers. The monumental work of Tanya has been translated, explained, and disseminated in English throughout all corners of the globe. Nonetheless, we find that one of the greatest works of Chassidic thought has not yet found its way onto the English bookshelf, the Mamarim of Torah Or and Likkutei Torah of the Alter Rebbe. These works are considered to be the Oral Torah of the Tanya and are hence complementary to it. The Mamarim of Torah Or and Likkutei Torah are the foundation of most of the Mamarim of Chassidus of all the later generations. One of the reasons for the lack of an English counterpart for this Sefer is because of its great depth and advanced Kabbalistic jargon. It is our great honor to offer the English-speaking public the first full English counterpart for the great, illustrious works of Torah Or and Likkutei Torah. The Sefer includes a single Mamar per Parsha, which is summarized, explained, and brought into practical application for the reader. The Mamarim are not a direct translation of the Hebrew original, but rather a content summary of the Mamar. At times, due to the extended length of a certain Mamar, we may only summarize a certain section of the Mamar, and not the Mamar in its entirety. Each Parsha features a single selected Mamar from amongst the many Mamarim that are printed in the Hebrew original, giving our readers a taste and glimpse of the full content of this monumental work. Our main goal is for the reader to receive the content knowledge of the most fundamental Mamarim written by the Alter Rebbe, and for him to be given the tools for how to implement this knowledge within his daily life. Each Mamar concludes with a lessons box that summarizes the practical life lessons that we can derive from the Mamar. Also included are interesting parables that we find easy to relate to and help us to digest the content being studied, and internalize it. It is our heartfelt prayer that the Mamarim in this Sefer will uplift your spiritual experience and give you spiritual hope, faith, love, and trust in Hashem, being the light that illuminates your relationship with G-d.

Rabbi Yaakov Goldstein is a noted instructor in Judaic studies. He is also the director of Shulchanaruchharav.com, the world's leading web-based Halacha database, and is the director of the Home Study Semicha Program. Rabbi Goldstein received Semicha from Rabbi Schneur Zalman Labkowski of the Tomchei Temimim headquarters in 2005 and served as a chaplain in the Lotar/Kalatz and K9 units of the IDF from the years 2005-2008. There, he dealt with various Halachic issues relating to soldiers in his unit. Since then he has become a certified Shochet, and teaches classes in Halacha and Chassidus in the Jerusalem area. Rabbi Goldstein currently lives with his wife Shayna and nine children in Beitar Illit, Israel, where he serves through his classes to spread the knowledge of Nigleh and Chassidus to the Chareidi public. Other works by the author The present author has written books on various subjects in Shulchan Aruch. Some of these sections are not yet available to the public in a published format, although all are currently available free of charge on our website Shulchanaruchharav.com. In order for these subjects to become available on the bookshelf, and to add more subjects to the website, we are in need of funding. If you, or anyone you know, would like to sponsor a Halachic section to become available in print or on the web, please contact the author, and the merit of spreading Halacha, and the merit of the Alter Rebbe, will certainly stand in your favor! Subscription: To subscribe to our website's mailing list, please contact rabbi@shulchanaruchharav.com The subscription is free and includes a weekly Mamar in English from Torah Or/Likkutei Torah, a daily Halacha, and updates on Halachic sections as they become available on the web and in print.

This is an amazing book. The Lubavitcher Rebbe has instructed his chassidim to learn the weekly parsha of Torah or-Likkutei Torah. This book makes it possible for those who can not learn from the original text. Rabbi Goldstein does not do a direct translation. He presents an excellent introduction which gives an overview of the topic, lists questions to focus on, give parables throughout to understand the topic better and ends it with a brief summary. Each chapter is only about 5-6 pages.

It shouldn't take more than 30 minutes to read each chapter and understand the material. It is fascinating material. This is a must have book for all of Anash.

Pure genius and now available to English readers! Thanks Rabbi Goldstein.

Well done summary of basic chassid text but needs more content on each of the chapters.
