Writing Your First Erotic Romance And Erotica Story

Synopsis

This is an updated and expanded second edition that includes examples from the author's works and story prompts for you to try. Have you ever dreamed about writing a romance story that doesn't stop at the bedroom door and gets readers hot under the collar? Or maybe you want to heat up your story even more and write erotica. In this book, bestselling erotic romance and erotica author, Vanessa Devereaux shows you how you can turn your idea into a story that will have readers turning the pages again and again. You'll learn-

- The differences between erotic and non-erotic romances
- The difference between erotica and pornography
- Types of erotic romances you can write
- Deciding if the genre is right for you and figuring out your comfort level
- How to create sexual tension in the erotic romance
- The essentials of both the erotic romance and erotica
- First person versus third person narration
- Male versus female point of view
- Getting in the mood for writing in this genre
- Markets for erotic romances and erotica

Customer Reviews

Not a bad overview, but could be a lot better if she had included examples, even if just from her own writing, to illustrate the points she was making. As it is, it read like a slightly fleshed out outline. I will give her credit for avoiding a lot of the things that you find in all the other Erotic Fiction Writing books, i.e., Covers, Blurbs, Kindle Unlimited, etc, that we've read ad nauseum, and just focused on the storytelling aspects. Again, a decent book, but if the chapters had been more fleshed out it could have been a 4 or even a 5 Star book.
