I have always had a passion for art and illustrations, but it wasn't until I became a stay-at-home mom from my elementary teaching career that I decided that I would try to use that passion to help support my family while home with my babies. I was not an art teacher, nor did I major in anything art related, but it was always something that I loved to do in my spare time. I decided to start an Etsy shop in the spring of 2014 selling what I found to be an intriguing and unique type of art - chalkboard art. I prayed long and hard before finally deciding to embark on this journey and truly felt like God was nudging my heart in this direction. Since that time, nothing has been the same, and the response from everyone has been unbelievable. I am so incredibly grateful for each and every door that God opens and ultimately hope to glorify Him with every opportunity that I'm given. I currently live in Jessup, MD with my husband John, and our two children Skylar and Asher.

“Chalk It Up To Grace” is the latest premium edition Christian coloring book by Paige Tate & Co. While I have a number of the earlier books, this is the first coloring book I have by artist Shannon Roberts. Ms. Roberts style is both elegant and fun at the same time. She provides an insight into her spiritual inspiration as a Christian in her biography at the back of the book. It's always wonderful to hear about what God has been doing in the lives of other believers. The designs in this book are a mixture of inspirational Scripture and Christian sayings along with lovely designs that surround the words and bring attention to them. The book has 30 full page designs and an additional 14 designs which are printed two to a page. The smaller designs are scaled down versions of some of the full page designs. The pages are mostly black with the coloring elements in white. The way the pages are printed is black ink on white paper. While the pages are perforated, you will still have to cut the smaller designs along the cutting lines provided if you wish to remove them from the book. The larger prints will fit into an 8 x 10 inch frame and the smaller ones will fit well in a 5 x 7 frame. This book, as with the other premium edition books, is printed on a heavyweight paper that is much more substantial than the paper used in this publishers regular coloring books. The book is approximately 10 x 8.5 inches with a beautiful black cover with gold foil accents and pretty partially colored illustrations (and yes, the cover art is the very first page in the book and serves double purpose as a title page and a coloring designs.) Chalk-style coloring is a fun new way of coloring designs. The black background makes the colors you use pop, especially if you use light or fluorescent colors in your work. Some dark colors can end up a little too dark, so you may want to check your colors to see how they work on black before committing to them. I am using a variety of mediums for each design including alcohol and water-based markers, gel pens, and colored pencils. This is the overview of what I experienced while coloring in this book and testing my various coloring mediums on the page: 30 Large Format and 14 Small Format Scripture/Saying Based Designs in for a total of 44 coloring opportunities. Printed on one side of perforated, black background, slightly rough heavyweight paper. Designs do not merge past the perforations. Glue Binding. Book can open to fairly flat position though I removed my pages from the book for coloring Alcohol-based markers bleed through the paper Water-based markers left shadows of color on the back of the page Gel pens and India ink pens left indistinct shadows on the back of the page. Coloring pencils work well with the paper. I tested a variety of both wax and oil based pencils and had good results with all of them for color, layering, and blending. I use a pencil style blending stick with for my tests. My hard lead pencils provided good color and did not dent the back of the page.

I really love this coloring book! I have really gotten into coloring for relaxation, so I have bought a variety of books. These black background pages just look so rich and beautiful when I get done with the picture using gel pens. They really are pretty enough to put on display, and they have perforations so you can get the pages out easily. The black background is a little more forgiving of the slip of hand and color outside the lines!!! Yes, we are all perfectionists, aren't we? I like the color feel, it is velvety and easy to put the color on smoothly! Colorists will know what I mean! Go easy on the pressure of your pen, because there is a tendency for a tiny bit of paper to ball up, but if you keep a light touch, that does not happen often. The designs are lovely, such a variety and the messages are good and positive. The smaller pictures will be nice to send as cards to people along with a letter. I am very happy with this book!

Love it, the chalk background makes the colors pop.

This coloring book is adorable! All of the page backgrounds are black like a chalkboard - hence the word chalk in the name. I thought I might not like the black background, but I LOVE it because I can be messy with my coloring and I don't have to worry about getting outside the lines a little bit. This is perfect for when I'm watching TV and don't want to have to put so much effort into making the outlines perfect. You can use both marker and colored pencil. The pages aren't double sided, so there's no need to worry about bleed through. Each page is perforated so you can tear it out and frame it. They're all sized to standard frame sizes too, so no need to trim down. There are little minis in the back of the book that are too cute. The lettering is beautiful and each page is really unique. The pages allow for a lot of fun color variety. I'm 27 and LOVE this book, so it's definitely great for all ages. This would be a perfect stocking stuffer or fun gift.

Coloring book is nice quality with heavy paper & perforated pages. The designs are not so complicated that enjoying the time becomes stressful. One change to make these pages better would be the black backgrounds be truly black. The pages look like they've come from a copy machine that's almost out of ink. Overall, a nice book.

I love to color as a stress reliever so I was happy to have a adult coloring book that reflects God's word! Each design is a single page and is perforated so that you can color and frame if you like! I shared this book while on retreat this past weekend along with some other adult coloring books and EVERYONE chose a page from Chalk It Up To GRACE!!!!

I absolutely love this coloring book! The pages are very heavy duty and the illustrations are very pretty. It is also a great adult coloring book to cheer you up. I would absolutely recommend this. It has really helped me through a rough time I've been able to let out my stress by coloring and reading at the inspirational quotes.

This has been one of my favorite coloring books. It is peaceful to color and walk through.
